I would retain Col. Grant and Mr. D. L. Rice C. I. E. I quite agree with the 1st Councillor's remarks in their case.

2. I would retain Mr. Appa Rao and send away Mr. S. In. I am also sorry to lose Mr. Chitale to his place.

3 I would retain Mr. V. Shamaiya as the number here.

4 Mr. Menakshya Br. al-Law. He may be retained as already decided.

Addl. Commissioners

1 Mr. M. Ramachandra Rao may be retired.

2. Mr. D. Thomas and Haidar may be retained for another year. But why this fourth time in the last year of grace? It would be better to retire him at once, if the 2 nd. Councillor is not satisfied with him. I think that another year's grace may be given him, if he has asked for it.

3. Mr. C. Shesadri Iyengar. I never thought that he was so old as 55. There must be a mistake regarding certificates after due enquiry.

Excise Commissioner no. 1979/88 of 31st August 03

Please see the 2nd Comptroller's remarks dt 4/9/03 on the draft order.

The wording of the Council resolution of 4th April 02 was:-

"That the pay of Mr S. Venkatanarayanaiyangar, Asstt to the Excise Comr, be raised from Rs 300 to Rs 350 and that he be graded with the Extra Asstt Comrs of the 3rd class.

A draft note approving that Mr S. V. Ayengar as Asstt Comr of the 3rd class was submitted to the Dy Secretary who directed to draft an order in the terms of the Council resolution stating that the latter did not justify the issue of a note & this was done —

K. Seetharama Rao was then the Hd Clerk of the branch who used to submit the papers direct personally to it is from him I learnt the above fact)

For the same reason no note was issued when Mr. S. V. Iyalan was granted privilege leave for 5 days in January 03.

Similarly a draft order instead of a note was ruled in the present instance also.

(C) As the order of retirement was not in the office when this draft was prepared it could not be verified & so clear from the accompanying slip.

The order of retirement of Calls on S. V. Iyalan as Extra Asstt Comr & a note has accordingly been drafted & ruled for obtaining
